DETAILED ACTION

1. The drawings filed 3-9-04 are acceptable.
2. Claims 31 and 33-36 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1 and 13-15 of U. S. Patent No. 5,981,921. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both sets of claims are directed to a method of securing a vehicular drive shaft assembly having a drive shaft tube and an end fitting by an inductor which generates a magnetic field to force them together to weld the same with substantially the same steps. The location of the drive shaft tube in the middle of the inductor as claimed in claim 31 would have been an obvious engineering design variation of claim 1 of the parent patent in order to achieve maximum heating and more uniform heating effect. In regard to claim 33, the use of a contamination shield about the shoulder of the end fitting was also similarly claimed in claim 13 of the parent patent.
3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).
A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).
Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Art Unit: 3742

4. Claims 32 and 37-42 are allowable.
5. Claims 31 and 33-36 would be allowable if the obviousness double patenting rejection set forth above is overcome such as, by filing a terminal disclaimer.
